Featured Review

The Deep End. (2001)
 What will a mother do to save her son? In this movie Tilda Swinton is a one-woman tour de force. Worried that her teen-aged son is involved in a murder, Margaret Hall takes drastic steps to protect him. Soon she is deeply enmeshed in a dangerous, unknown world. In the middle of it all is an enigmatic extortionist who might be her undoing or her savior. A great scene is when Margaret's car breaks down on the way to a critical meeting. Goran Visnjic delivers a memorable performance as the extortionist. This is a multi-layered, intense thriller that involves the viewer from beginning to end.

Tilda Swinton stars opposite George Clooney in the new potboiler Michael Clayton. If you liked Michael Clayton, try The Bourne Identity, The Firm, Insider, Erin Brokovich, or The Verdict. If you want to see more of Ms. Swinton, check out The Chronicles of Narnia, The Statement, Constantine, and Orlando.
